	Social Security Number Application Records Records prepared by individuals in applying to the Social Security Administration for a social security number or for a social security card that has been lost. The records date from 1936 to October 30, 1972. Included are approximately 300,000,000 documents, consisting of Forms SS-5, Application for Social Security Number; OAAN-7003, Request for Change in Social Security Records; OA-C790, Request for E/R Action; OA-D840, Request for Earnings Record--Disability; or their equivalents. These forms are being microfilmed and converted to magnetic tape by a keying and verifying operation. The magnetic tape record will contain reference number, social security number, and personal identifying information. Hard Copy Records Place in a holding file after completion of micro-filming and taping operations. Destroy after all possible exceptions and special actions have been processed. Note: Excluded from this Schedule are application records accumulated after October 30, 1972. These records are covered under Archives Job Number NN-172-110. The retention requirements of 172-110 are presently being reevaluated in view of legislation which may require extended retention of the hard copy records accumulated after October 30, 1972.
