CASE NO. CV10-01075 GAF (PJW)
Honorable Gary A. Feess
Roybal 740

PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION TO THIS CASE BEING CONSIDERED
RELATED
SUPPORTING TRANSFER TO
ANOTHER COURT, ANOTHER
COUNTY, AND JUDGE OF A CLOSED
CASE.

22 Comes now Plaintiff, Ruth Jones, and files her opposition to this case
23 being considered "related" as defined in L.R. 83-1.3 (a),(b) and (c) .

24 The previously filed case at another court SACV 09-0082 DOC (ANx)
25 has been a "closed" case for many months. This case does not qualify for

27 PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION TO THIS CASE BEING CONSIDERED RELATED
28

1 a "related" case as it does not meet the criteria. As well, it would cause
2 prejudice to the Plaintiff there by depriving her constitutional right to
3 grievance of a fair and just court. It is unjust to allow the Defendant and
4 the attorneys to 'Judge and court shop' just to ensure obtaining a Judge
5 who has already agreed with them in the past on other issues.

6
7 1)The Defendant's Notice of Related Case only included the "individual"
8 capacity of Barack Obama. The case at hand also includes in the 9 "Official Capacity".

10 2)The defendant should not be allowed to "court" and "judge" shop.
11 There was a Judge assigned assumingly randomly when this case was 12 filed. At least when the Judge is picked randomly when the case if filed
13 (February 2010) it has the appearance of fairness in the system.

14 3)There is no other (related) case which is "open".
15 This other case is NOT an open case, it is a closed case. It was closed
16 some time in 2009.

17 4)There would be no advantage to moving this case to Judge Carter.
18 Judge Carter dismissed this other case. Judge Carter allowed NO
19 DISCOVERY. Judge Carter allowed NO hearings on the MERITS of the 20 case after he has said he would. As there were no discovery and no
21 hearing on the merits, Judge Carter could not have known about the 22 merits of the other case. He could know no discovery as there was none
23 allowed. He would remember the other case, and most likely remember
24 it instead of this case at bar. This too would create prejudice to the 25

1 Plaintiff's ability to receive a fair trial just because the Defendants were
2 allowed to Court and Judge pick and choose. Judge Carter said he had
3 50 or more people calling his office. It seemed like it was a circus. The 4 Plaintiff would like to have professionalism and the law enforced instead
5 of the people who are not parties to be influencing the court. Plaintiff is 6 concerned the Defendant wishes to create this atmosphere and try and 7 place her in an unsafe environment far away from her home as there
8 were many alleged threats to the Plaintiff at the case in Santa Ana.

9 5)The plaintiff's case is not like the other case.

10 The other case had numerous Defendants. Plaintiff's case only has one
11 Defendant, Barack Obama. In the other case the Plaintiffs were Political 12 Candidates. The Plaintiff in this case is a U.S. citizen and has never 13 been a political candidate. And, the list goes on and on as to how they 14 are different.

15
16 There are at least 50 cases in the United States which have been filed
17 against Barack Obama from different standpoints, singly and with other 18 Defendants. They may all be related in that the name Barach obama is 19 included as a Defendant. However, there is no open case at the District
20 level in California that I am aware of. And, none at this District Court
21 in Los Angeles. I as the Plaintiff have written in my compliant of 22 jurisdiction that I am zoned to this courthouse where I live in North Los 23 Angeles. It would create injustice to the Plaintiff to make her go miles
24 away to another court in another city. That would be punitive.

1 6)It would be a great physical hardship on plaintiff in this case at hand
2 to be required to go to a court house many miles away from her zoned
3 courthouse which is the central courthouse in "Los Angeles".

4 It would create injustice if the Plaintiff was made to go all the way to 5 another court house out of her city and out of the jurisdiction which she 6 included in her complaint. It would be unjust to require this of the 7 Plaintiff when it would create bias in favor of the Defendant.

8 7)There would be prejudice in favor of the defendant if this case was 9 moved to Judge Carter to another courthouse, another county and 10 location other than where the plaintiff lives and resides as noted in 11 her complaint.

12 The Defendant had a case in front of Judge Carter which they were 13 successful in getting the Judge to rule for them on every issue. Even 14 when the Judge said he would hold hearings on the "merits" he changed
15 his mind all of a sudden and dismissed the case. The Plaintiff in that 16 other case, was not allowed to obtain any discovery. All the issues went 17 in favor of the Defendant. Is it any wonder they would try and revive a 18 dismissed and closed case at another courthouse a long way from the 19 Plaintiff just so they could be heard under their preferred and chosen
20 Judge. This would appear to be circumventing the system instead of 21 believing the Judge (I assume was randomly assigned) could rule on 22 matters of which he rules every day to uphold the laws.

23 8) Mr. Siddharth Velamoor, Judge Carter's law clerk, comes from the 24 same law firm that has been retained in the past to defend Mr. Obama
25 regarding eligibility lawsuits.

1 Mr. Velamoor was an attorney with Perkins Coie, the law firm paid by
2 "Obama" to block any subpoenas for his records. He was Judge Carter's
3 law clerk when the 'other case' was dismissed. He is his law clerk.

4 This too, would make for more prejudiced in favor of the 5 Defendants to have this "relationship" as they did in this "other" case of 6 Barnett v. Obama.

7 9)The causes of action and the supporting factual foundation of the 8 plaintiff's case at hand it not the same as the other closed case which 9 included the name of Barack Obama as one of the defendants.

10 There is no factual support if a different judge heard this case it would 11 entail "substantial duplication of labor". Judge Carter does not know the 12 Plaintiff, Ruth Jones, her case, her merits of the case, the facts of her
13 case, and the details of her case. This case is not the same at all of Judge
14 Carter's previous case. If one Judge does not allow and hear any 15 discovery and does not hold a trial or hearings on the merits of a case,
16 there is probably nothing he would know which is included in Ruth 17 Jones' case. But, for sure it would create a prejudice against the 18 Plaintiff. The other case is not open and was not heard on its merits.

19 10)Some of the plaintiffs of the other case were 3rd party political 20 candidates; this plaintiff is just a citizen with rights under the U.S.
21 Constitution.

22 11)Even though a Judge may not desire to take a case because of its 23 unpopularity, he has an mandate from the U.S. Constitution to review
24 the case whether he wants to or not.

12)It would be a great hardship and be grossly unfair if every time the plaintiff needed to file a documents she would have to go all the way to Santa Ana, Orange county, and back.

In this central district the court does not allow one in pro se to file their documents by e filing.

That would create an unjust and unneeded hardship for the Plaintiff.

The Plaintiff objects and files her opposition to the transfer of this case to another Judge and another county. It would create prejudiced and hardship against the Plaintiff. It would not serve to lessen any duplication of services.

The Defendant would not be prejudiced if this case is not moved.

The location, county and jurisdiction of where this Plaintiff at hand lives and where this harm took place is in Los Angeles in Los Angeles, County.
