JORDAN MARSH CO.

Globe Want Ads

Globe

Display Ads

Get the largest circulation and bring the best results

Increase

By advertising regularly in the DAILY and SUNDAY GLOBE . . . . .

OCTOBER AVERAGES: Daily Globe

192,640

296,581

BOOKS OPEN TO ALL

HOLD-UP DIDN'T WORK

There Was $10,000 Ready for Train Robbers.

Rock Island Road Had Officers and Bloodhounds to Capture Gang.

But the Signals Miscued and Chase Ended in Failure.

DES MOINES, Ia, Nov 9-The Rock Island railroad officials last night sent out a special train bearing armed officers and bloodhounds to Dexter, in the hope of capturing a gang of hold-up the woods between Earlham and Dexter. but had no encounter with any robbers. A section man walking the track, however, shot at a man whom he saw slouching along the right of way but he escaped in the timber. About 10 days ago the general officers in Chicago received a letter directing them to see that $10.000 was thrown off of No. 6, the Denver flyer, somewhere in Iowa Saturday night. Bupt Slifer came to Des Moines and it was decided to make the appearance of acceding to the demand of the hold-up men. A special was made up at Council Bliffs to follow No. 6 about 10 minutes, and it bore armed men and blood-The engineer of No. 6 was given the money to throw from his locomotive at the given signal, the explosion of three torpedoes under his side of the machine. The torpedoes were not exploded. It was rumored today, however, that

No. 5, preceding No. 6 half an hour, had ampleded the torpedoes. This or some other new information resulted in organizing a special force of armed officers, who went out on a special from Des Moines to Dexter, and then patrolled the right of way between Earlham and that town all night. Nothing developed, however, and the men remained in the timber watching for the criminals in vain. The officials of the road will not discuss the matter. No. 6, which passed through here to the east at 11:30, bore a large number of armed men prepared for an attempted holdup.

Each season Nicoli style, quality and fit gain more and more friends.

Any Man Can Afford to wear Nicoll clothing because it always represents high-class merchant tailoring

To-order from $20.00

CLOCK

Question of Eligibility for Presidency.

Some Hold He is Barred by Your Business Reason of Birth in Germany.

Under Revised Statutes, However, He is Entitled to All Privileges of Natural Born Citizen.

elect of New York city he has been mentioned as a strong possibility for the democratic nomination for president in 1904. In the discussion of this possibility a question over his eligibility has stitution of the United States, was de-must be native born.

An anecdote in which Col McClellan and his mother figure is taken to indicate that he considered himself incligible for the presidency. According to the story Mrs McClellan was frequently twitted by her son that he was robbed of his American birthright—the possibility of his reaching the President's chair-by his foreign birth, and in answer to his playful complaints Mrs Mc-Ciellan said that he need not worry, as I natural-born citizen. father was not smart enough reach that office, and there was small Opinions of Boston Lawyers. possibility of his ever accomplishing When asked for his opinion what his father could not. Years ago in the public schools it was of the United States must be a nativeborn citizen of this country.

Defined by the Constitution.

Section 2 of the constitution, which relates to this matter, and which was adopted Sept 17, 1787, declares that: "No person except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall be eligible to the office of he was not eligible. He looked the mat-

The revised statutes declare that: "All children heretofore born or hereafter born out of the United States, whose fathers were or may be at the time of their birth, citizens thereof, are declared to be citizens of the United States, but the rights of citizenship shall not descend to children whose fathers never resided in the United States.'

Col McClellan was born in Dresden, Germany, in November, 1865, being the son of Gen George B. McClellan. After went to Europe for a rest, but they in try, bringing the child with them. According to many prominent lawyers of Boston, young McClellan up to the period of his becoming 21 years of age, was possessed of dual citizenship. That ubject of either Germany or a citizen of the United States, and could become either at the mere exercise of his choice. On reaching man's estate he was comnelled to make that choice of allegiance to either country and he could become either German or American without our so-called form of naturalization. He was in this country and had been from the time he came here with his of citizens were reenacted in this form: parents, and at 21 he was elected to be "The children of persons duly naturalparents, and at 21 he was elected to be a citizen of this country. Of his citizen-much discussion. The whole point of the argument made by those who say he is not eligible to the presidency of this country seems to hang upon the legal definition of "natural-born" citizen. In the event of his being actually placed in the field as a candidate a very peculiar situation may ensue, for his case would be unique, in that this question has never before arisen in relation to a candidate for the presidency of this country. McClellan Natural Born.

A Globe reporter interviewed and talked with a number of the leading lawyers in Boston about this point, and there seemed to be almost no difference of opinion among them. They hold that Col McClellan is a natural-born citizen statement quoted the following decisof this country, and is therefore eligible | ions: to the office of president. Many of those talked with said that, off-hand, they would say that Col McClellan is eligible to the presidency, but as there seemed therefore that their children born to be possible room for doubt on the abroad are American citizens. This was matter, they did not care to be quoted decided by the supreme court of the without first very carefully looking into United States in the case of Wolff vs the legal status of the case.

One prominent lawyer dissents from this view, and says the President of vessel of American parents, while the this country must be native born, and vessel was in a foreign country in that such was the intention of the framers of the constitution. The English law is settled by statutes Blatchford, U S, 18)."

7, Anne C. 5, George II C. 21, and 13
George III C. 21. By 7 Anne C 5 the cided also by the supreme courts of children of natural-born British sub- New York, South Carolina, New Hampjects, though born out of British do- shire, Iowa and Maine that children of minion, are declared to be natural-born American parents born abroad during British subjects, and by 13 George III C. | the temporary sojourn of their parents, 21 the children of those who are natural- are citizens of the United States."

Ever since George B. McCiellan re- | are declared to be natural-born British does not descend to children whose fathers never resided here. It has been claimed by some term "natural-born citizen," in the conlish law quoted above.

Among those who have made the of Chicago, Ill, and many others, is claim that Col McClellan is not a quoted as placing him out of the presinatural-born citizen of this country dential race, as these persons assert there seems to be the theory that there that a President of the United States are several kinds of citizenship, as the natural born, the naturalized, the foreign born and the American born. Practically all the lawyers talked with on but two classes of citizenship, the natural born and the naturalized. In answering the argument of those who say Col McClellan is not eligiple, these he must of necessity be classed as a

When asked for his opinion on the subject of the eligibility of Col McClellan as a presidential candidate, in view of quite generally taught that a President | the point raised against him, Atty Gen Herbert Parker said: "Yes, he is eligible, as he is a natural born citizen of this country; natural born because his citizenship was coincident with his birth. He never drew a breath save as a citizen of the United States." John H. Casey, first assistant U S district attorney, showed considerable interest in the subject at first, and said that he was inclined to the belief that ter up as carefully as possible in the brief time at his command, and then gave as his opinion in answer to the question of eligibility: "Yes, he is eligible, as a natural born citizen means a citizen of the United States who became so at the moment of his birth. It not being necessary for Col McClellan to take out naturalization papers, it therefore follows that he is a natural born citizen. The law recognizes only the two classes, the natural born and the naturalized citi-

In enlarging on his first statement, Mr the civil war the general and his wife Casey said: "Mr Justice Swayne, sitting in the circuit court, said in United States no way renounced their allegiance to vs Rhodes, 'All persons born in the althis country, and three years after their legiance of the king are natural born son's birth, they returned to this counallegiance of the United States are natural born citizens.

"Congress passed in 1790 an act in part as follows: 'The children of citizens of the United States that may be born is, he might legally consider himself a beyond the sea, or out of the limits of the United States, shall be considered law was reenacted, substituting for the words beyond the sea or out of the limits of the United States,' the words. 'out of the limits and jurisdiction of the United States.'
"In 1802 all former acts were repealed, and the provisions concerning children ized under any of the laws of the ship there is no contention, but as to United States, or who previous to the the nature of his citizenship there is passing of any law on that subject by the government of the United States. may have become citizens of any of the under the age of 21 years at the time of their parent's being so naturalized or admitted to the rights of citizenship. shall, if dwelling in the United States, be considered as citizens of the United States: and the children of persons who now are or have been citizens of the United States shall, though born out of the limits and jurisdiction of the United States, be considered as citizens of the United States.' " Establish His Eligibility.

Guy W. Currier said that undoubtedly Col McClellan is eligible as a candidate for the presidency, and in support of his

"The presumption is that natives of the United States retain their citizenship while traveling abroad, and decided by the supreme court of the Archibald, 14 Fed Rep. 869.

"A child born on board an American the course of the voyage is a citizen of the United States. U S vs Gordon, 5 the child would be an American. If the child was born in England, for instance, he law holds that it was not born with

Under U S Protection. In the case of Col McClellan, he was not in Germany under the protection of the government of that country, but under the protection of the United States, and he didn't owe a temporary allegiance to Germany. Those who claim that he is not a natural born citizen may consider that he did owe allegiance to Germany from the recognized princi-ple in common law that even the chilthe parents are resident there under in the allegiance, or, in other words, under the protection and control of the the parents are resident there under the protection of the government, and owing a temporary allegiance thereto, are subjects by birth.

One lawyer when asked to define "natural born" citizenship, said that he had not very carefully considered the question, but offhand he would say the term was intended to mean "one not acquiring citizenship by naturalization." Edmund A. Whitman of the law firm of Elder & Whitman, said, when asked for an opinion on the subject, that it was too trivial to bother discussing, for there are but two classes of citizenship, and as Col McClellan was never required to become naturalized, he must of necessity be a natural born citizen of this country.

WHALEBONE WORTH $75,000.

Monster Catch of Steamer Alexander from Seven Whales-75-Year-Old

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov 9-The whaling steamer Alexander, just arrived, brings a catch in whalebone reckoned as to 12,000 pounds, worth in the neighborseven whales. John Landons, 75 years old, died of general debility on the voykimos took their places.

The whaling bark Andrew Hicks also arrived and brought 850 barrels of sperm. She took 25 whales in all during er cruise, but they were mostly small, some giving only five or six barrels. Sha

LADDERMAN SAM. C. DWIGHT

To be the Senior of His Company, 18, to Succeed C. J. Doherty, Recently

Fire Commissioner Russell today announced the selection of ladderman Samuel C. Dwight of ladder 18, Pittsburg st, to be the senior of his company to succeed ladderman Cornelius J. Do herty, recently promoted to lieutenant and placed in charge of the new tower 8. Dwight has been in the service sev-

Hoseman William Lally of engine company 82, Bunker Hill st, Charlestown, who was selected for promotion waiting assignment. Lally successfuly passed the civil service examinations. Where he is to be assigned is a question. There are no vacancies among the lieutenants, and many firemen have an nounced.

The assignment of the new lieutenant, John F. Curley, to engine 5, Marion st. East Boston, was something of a surprise. Steamer 5 never had a junior officer before, and many thought that it would be a long time before it would get one. Steamer 5 is looked upon as a Noddle-island district.

William Matteer, who was recently renstated to the fire department and asinstated in the fire department and as-South Boston organization known as the Early Morning circle. The members lawyers say that as the mayor-elect of have to appear at the L-st bath every New York is not a naturalized citizen, morning at 5:30 and take a plunge, and tue club was organized with the purpose of bettering the physical condiions of its members.

WILLIAMS COURT, M. C. O. F.

Reunion in Hibernian Hall, East Bos ton, Very Successful Affair. The reunion of Williams court, M. C. Boston, last evening was a most suc-essful affair. About 500 members participated. Speeches were delivered by High Chief Ranger T. B. Reardon, High Junior Conductor C. E. Bonning and High Secreary and Treas John J. Leonard.

Music and Treas John J. Leonard.
Music and recitations followed, among those contributing being Miss Anastasia.
Hughes of Maiden, Miss Holen I. Delehanty, Miss Margaret McCarthy, William H. Quinn, William Harding, Owen
Finn, Thomas Lennon of the Mission church choir, Harry Keenan, Al Miller and J. J. Callahan, secretary.

FORGOT POWDER WAS IN OVEN, leseph Jacques of Amesbury Had Narrow Escape When Stove Was Blown Up.

NEWBURYPORT, Nov 9 -- Joseph acques of Amesbury, a woodchopper. ecently built a new shanty in the Salisoury woods and moved his household effects from an old shanty to the building. He placed some gunpowder, which he had purchased for use in splitting rees, in the oven of his cooking range, thinking that it would be safe there.

thinking that it would be safe there.

After he had set up the stove in the new building he started a fire, forgeting about the powder. A few minutes later there was an explosion and the stove was demolished. A portion of it was blown into piecos and the balance was hurled through the side of the building.

Mr Jacques chanced to be a short distance away and escaped the rain of iron, but in extinguishing the fire his hands were badly burned.

FAVOR NATIONAL MOVEMENT.

About 500 Hold Meeting in John Mitchell Hall-Noted Speakers. About 500 men interested in the Irish national movement were present in John Mitchell hall, 1171 Tremont st, from yesterday afternoon and evening. The meeting was called to order by Pres John Sullivan.

from Ireland, says affairs are looking very bright there. The people know that much good will resuit if the intent of the framers of the land bill are carried out. He says that the study of the Irish language is receiving the support of the entire country, especially in Belfast, due to the great work of the Gaelle league.

was seen later and ne fully approved of the lynching. "Blood is thicker than water," he said, "but that boy of mine did wrong and got what he deserved. I have a wife and two daughters, and if or the law to take its course, but would kill the man myself." aelic league. He also said that the men of the north

He also said that the men of the north of Ireland are more in favor of home rule now than ever, the benefits to be derived having been placed before them by the Industrial league, a very powerful new organization.

Among the speakers were: County Pres Mathew Cummings of Suffolk county board, A. O. H.; Pres John Dolan of division 3: Ex-Pres John F. White of division 22, Pres Martin Flaherty of division 23, Pres Hugh McGown of the Montgomery club, Pres John H. O'Brien of the Catalpa club, Ex-Pres Patrick J. Toner of the Sheridan club of Brookline, Pres Reddington of division 26, Pres Timothy Cashman of the Gaelio school, Representative-elect John Butler, Hon Thomas H. Dowd, Capt John Dillon, vice president of Suffolk county board A. O. H., Thomas J. Downey of division 23, A. O. H., and Messrs Cavnan and Cushman of the Shears brothers club.

Soigs and instrumental selections were rendered by John B. Deady. John Connors. John Cosgrove. Patrick J. Kenny, Mr Tagney, Joseph Quinn. William Hurley, Mr O'Neil. James Regan, Timothy Mansfield and Frank J. O'Tool. Low Rates West and Northwest.

Every day until November 80, the Chiago. Milwaukee & St Paul railway will sell one-way tickets Chicago to many points on the Pacific coast for $33. At the children of those who are natural-born subjects by the preceding statutes are themselves declared to be natural-born British subjects. Thus the children of natural-born British subjects, although born abroad are citizens of the United States."

The above is practically the law of England and also of Canada with relation to foreign-born citizens.

As to the nationality of a child born briefs and Pass'r Agent, 369 Weshing-ton Street, Boston.

Negro's Attack on Mrs Peter Labouisse.

Peril in Mississippi.

Man Was Hanged.

Three Colored Men on the Jury Convicted the Fiend.

PASS CHRISTIAN, Miss, Nov 9-Through her husband, Mrs Peter La-bouisse, the beautiful young matron was attacked in the woods near here by Sam Adams, a young negro, who was afterward lynched, has issued a

Mrs Labouisse has remained in her room since the attack, and is too ill to receive visitors as yet, and it is announced by her friends that she will remain in seclusion until she starts for Europe with her husband, daughter and servants. "I am glad the people have taken the hanged that I began to experience feeling of relief. There was no doubt as to his identity or the crime he intended to commit.

"He asked me to go with him becaus the horse might be afraid of a stranger. Margaret became suspicious, but I was only amused by her fears. I accompanied him some distance into the woods. I noticed the traces had been cut when we reached the horse, but thought nothing of it. On the way back he stopped and asked me, 'What time. I noticed a strange expression in his face. 'I don't want to see Mr La-bouisse,' he said; 'I want you.'

me and I gathered my skirts and ran. Suddenly my foot caught on comething and I fell. Before I could rise I felt him grasp me and I screamed. He drew a knife and held it to my throat, threatening to kill me if I did not cease screaming and struggling. I did not care for his threat and continued to scream and fight.

"I was strong enough to fight him back to Margaret and told her what had happened. She became wildly excited and frightened and we walked about 300 yards before we came upon Louis Allen, an estimable old negro, who was chopping wood with his two sons. He ran and got his wagon and F., at Hibernian hall, Havre st. East drove us home. He then told the people what had occurred. When they brought the young negro before me a short time afterward there was not the slightest doubt in my mind as to his After I recognized him the men took him away. I don't see how they could have done anything else than > what they did." Peter Labouisse added his statement > home, and Mrs Labouisse identified him. He was also identified by the nurse. Within two hours after Adams had made the attack the Knights of Honor hall was packed with men of both colors. A committee of 10, among whom were three negroes, was selected to act John Lang conducted the trial, and the verdict was prompt:

The crowd applauded the verdict and arrangements were made and commit-tees appointed to look after the details. Adams was taken from the constables who were taking him out of town and led beneath a big tree. A noose was put around his neck and the other end of the rope was thrown over a limb. When asked if he had anything to say before being hanged, Adams thought a few minutes and then said, "Ah wish when yo' all gets through with me yo' wo'd just give my shoes to my pa." Ben Adams, the dead man's father, James Kelly, who has just returned was seen later and he fully approved of > Smoke Talk of Div 71, A. O. H. The smoke talk and entertainment held in aid of the sick and funeral funds by division 71, A. O. H., of Boston, in

HELFANT, Me, Nov 9-A three-story

JORDAN MARSH CO.

New York Woman Tells of

Father Said "That Boy Did Wrong and Got What He Deserved."

statement concerning the attack.

law into their own hands," said Mrs Labouisse. "It was only after I heard

"With my baby and her nurse, a girl named Margaret whom we brought with us from New York, I drove out into the woods to gather mushrooms. We wandered about and I had no more fear of being attacked than I would if on Long island. I had gone a short distance from Margaret, who had the baby with her, when the young negro came up to me and said the horse had broken away His manner was perfectly respectful and there was nothing about him to excite suspicion.

"I told him I did not have my purse with me, but that if he would stop at our house the next morning my husband would reward him. Then, for the first "As he said that, he started toward to the one given out by his wife. Adams was carried out swiftly, and entered by a sneak thief in the clothing with a semblence of deliberation. John of a plumber and money and jewelry val-I. Lang, a prominent real estate dealer; ued at $300 were taken. Beside the stu-William Trautman and S. M. Thornton drove to Adams' home. He was sitting Scott, teacher of elecution, and Miss Heon the fence rail as they drew near, and slene Edwards, the academy secretary, disappeared into the house. He went through the back door and ran for the at $100 were taken from Miss Scott's and woods. The three men fired at him with $10 in money and jewelry from Miss Ed-

Thornton finally overtook the negro and ordered him to throw up his hands. the gas was to be fixed. She supposed Adams did so, and was led back to the him to be a workman and made no own. He was taken to the Labouisse by division 71, A. O. H., of Boston, in United Fellowship hall, 26 Union Park st. last evening, was attended by about 300 persons. The address of welcome and a short history of division 71 were given by Pres James W. Scanlan, who later introduced James J. Cully as permanent presiding officer. Those contributing to the entertainment were Joseph Hoar, Thomas Kelly, Joseph Harper, H. W. Brennan, Pres Connellus J. Spellicy of division 68, A. O. H.; Dr Collins, John Nolan, Messrs Sullivan, Hooley, March, Mars, Cavanagh and Flynn. Addresses were delivered by County Pres Cummings, County Vice Pres Dillon, County Sec James M. Curley, Pres Denis O'Sullivan of division 12, Pres Hannon of division 17, Pres Reddington of division 26, Pres Dwyer of division 32, Pres Geoghegan of division 81.

"Guilty. He must hang."

ton, was badly damaged today by a fire which originated in the third story, ocwhich originated in the third story, occupied by a young men's club. The loss was nearly $10,000, partially covered by insurance. The losses were estimated as follows: On the building about $2500; F. B. Knowlton, dry goods, on the first floor, $2500; Stephenson & Bargent, confectioners, first floor, $2500; W. H. Clifford & Son, hair dressers, second floor, $250. Miss Ethel Webster, tenement, second floor, small; Dr Fowler, tenement, third floor, small; Dr Fowler, tenement,

Most Important Offering of Its Kind Ever Held Our Fourth Annual Sale of

JORDAN MARSH CO.

High-Class Neckwear For Women and Misses

Most important because we have purchased from many manufacturers their entire Felt Relief Only When the sample lines, together with their surplus stocks on hand, amounting in the aggregate to many thousands of dollars. Without exception the largest variety of the finest qualities -many styles being the most effective models of the season-ever offered in a sale of

Prices in Many Cases Do Not Cover Cost to Manufacture

Ten Bargain Counters-Street Floor-Left of Main Aisle-In Addition to Regular Section, Gives Broader Selling Space for This Sale

Some Persian effects, 50c. and 87c. value 50c. and 98c. and 47c. and 47c	and White Value 17C. and sec. yard 5C	With fine embroidered ends, value $1.37\frac{1}{2}
Great assortment, value 1240.  off Fancy Colored Stocks Of wash material, value 250.  off Embroidered Muli Ties Value 250.  off this and Colored Ascot Ties Value 250.  value	op Collars	Smart Taffeta Stocks
White Embroidered Sailor Collars Value $50. and $500	oft Fancy Colored Stocks Of wash material, value $50. 10c	Plauen Lace Robats.  Double pointed ends, value $1.37\frac{1}{2}$  Hand-Made Top Collar and
Value $5c. and 50c	hite and Colored Ascot	White Embroidered Sailor
Value $5	Value s5c. and 50c. 10c	For misses, value $2.00 SUC
very elective patterns, value 500 lars  With cuffs to match, value 550. 10c  lik Stocks  Tab ends, value 50c., price. 25c  affeta Silk Stocks  Some Persian effects, 50c., 67c. and 87c. values, for 25c  cru Lace Stocks  Value 50c	lars	Value $1.50 and $1.75 5UC
With cuffs to match, value $50.  With cuffs to match, value $50.  Whith cuffs to match, value $1.50.  Whith cuffs to match to colorings. Value $1.25.  Walue $1.25.  Whith cuffs to match to colorings. Value $1.25.  Walue $1.25.  Whith cuffs to colorings. Value $1.25.  Whith cuffs to colorings. Value $1.25.  Walue $1.25.  Whith cuffs to colorings. Yalue $1.25.  Whith cuffs to colorings. Yal	emstitched Turnover Col-	$1.00 50c
Affeta Silk Stocks  Some Persian effects, 50c., 67c. and 87c. values, for	With cuffs to match, value s50, 10c	Pointed ends. Value $1.50. 5UC
Value $1.25	affeta Silk Stocks Some Persian effects, soc., op-	Real Liberty Silk Squares
With tab ends, bright new coloring, value up to $1.00 25c hiffon Embroidered Stocks Value 59c	Value 50c	Imitation Irish Crochet Lace
Stocks Value 59c	With tab ends, bright new coloring, value up to $1.00. 25c	Misses' Lace Collars
Lace Stocks Value $2.00	Stocks Value 59c	Medium and wide effects, 1.00 value $1.98, $2.50, $3.00, price
	Lace Stocks Value $2.00	21 yards long, oriental designs, value $5.00 1.98

Ruching, White and Black | Muli Stocks

	Misses' Lace Stoles			•
	Point Venise Lace, value	2	ΔΛ	:
	$3.75	4.	00	F
4,	Black Lace Collars	25.44
	All silk, were $6.75 and	2	ΛŔ	Ż
	$9.00	Æ.	YO
	Silk Neck Ruffs		~~	i
	Value $4.00	· 2,	98	ij
•	I OCA STAIRS		13.7	Á
	New designs, value $5.00 to	3	ΛΛ	1
,	$7.50	ಿ.	VU	1
,	Real Lace Sleeves
	Former prices $13.50 and	~	Λ0	2
	$16.50	J.	98
•	Fancy Imported Silk		1.4
,	Shoulder Capes	_		١.
	Value $9.25	5.	.UU	ľ
	Lace Collars	e 11.		ì
,	Deep shoulder cape size,	_	ΔΔ
. ;	value $8.00 to $9.50	5.	00	١,
	Large Black Silk Stoles
;	With combination white	6	ΔΔ
	lace, $13.50	U.	00	l á
	Ostrich Boas			; -
•	Black, white, gray. Value	10	.00
	, ,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,	I V	VV	١.
	Ostrich Boas
۲.	Black, White, gray. Value	15.	00	ľ
	, ,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,
)	Ostrich Boas	18	00	١.
,	2 ) ur ab . cg. 1 a. a.c. p. j / . j e	. U	JU
:	Ostrich Boas
3	Black, white, gray. Value	20	.00	ĺ
,
	Ostrich Boas
•	Black, white, grav. Value	7	$\Lambda\Lambda$	١,

Pelerine effects, value $3.75 1.98

Lace Collars

Silk Neck Ruffs

MARSH JORDAN

COOL THIEF.

Supposed Plumber Visits Rooms of Dean Academy.

During Dinner Hour Got Away With Money and Jewelry Worth $300.

Represented He Was on the Premises to Fix Gas Plant.

FRANKLIN, Nov 9-During the dinner hour at Dean academy yesterday The capture, trial and execution of eight of the girl students' rooms were dents' rooms those of Miss Florence were entered. A watch and chain valued ifies and revolvers, but they did not wards'. The man also entered the apartment of Miss Olive Leet, who lav ill. and asked if that was the room in which

alarm. LAND FOR 40,000 CHEROKEES

That Number Will be on Final Rolls Before the 4,420,070 Acres to be Allotted Are Distributed. TAHLEQUAH, I T, Nov 9-The reports of the Dawes commission and the attorneys of the Cherokee nation show that there are 4,420,070.13 acres of land subject to allotment in the Cherokee nation. From this must be deducted reservations of one acre for each country school, for cemeteries and small try school, for cemeteries and small reservations for mission schools and new towns along railroads.

This allotable land is valued at $13,-133,000. There is now being allotted to each citizen $525.60 worth of this land.

The rolls show that there will be $40,000 Cherokees on the final rolls. The per capita share of each, not deducting the reservations above mentioned, would be $226.82, leaving a surplus of $2.72 in land due each citizen.

TOLD TO DESIST.

Milford Liquor and Sunday Law Violators Warned by Fr Phelan. MILFORD, Nov 9-Rev John P. Phelan, curate in St Mary's church, warned alleged violators of the liquor laws and Sunday laws in Milford to desist at the 10:45 o'clock mass yesterday morning. Fr Phelan said that drunkenness and disregard for the Sunday law was increasing alarmingly, that families were being neglected through drink and that it is about time the traffic was stopped Sundays. Sundays.

Fr Phelan started a reform a short time ago that succeeded in closing up various places.

John McKenna of Lowell is a guest at the home of Thomas Slattery on Highland av.

land av.

Ex-Senator Leonard W. Ross has gone on an extended trip to St Paul.

George Tate of Providence, formerly a resident of Canton, is visiting his parents, Mr and Mrs Andrew Tate, at the old home on Revere st.

Mrs M. A. Kelley of Washington st is entertaining Miss Carrie Ford of Milton, N.S.

The ladies' benevolent society of the Congregational (Evangelical) church will give a musical and literary entertainment and supper in the parish parfors Wednesday evaning.

George H. Davis, chief page in the national house of representatives, who has been passing his vacation at the home of his mother, Mrs Mary Davis, on Church st, has returned to Washington, determinent of the members of New Mary Davis, and th on Church st, has recommended to the members of Neponset lodge, A. O. U. W., of Canton will make a fraternal visit to Onward lodge in Norwood this evening. A discussion of the new pian of assessment adopted by the supreme lodge of the crider will be a feature of the meeting.

Process Server Tried

to Hand Her Paper. Timed Himself to Meet Her

Her Husband, the Baron, Hurled the Man Away.

Before Last Concert.

Diva Wept, and Adventure Affected Her Singing in Carnegie Hall

Eluded the Man of Law Before Going to Philadelphia.

NEW YORK, Nov 9-Thanks to the strong arm of her young husband, Mme Patti is in Philadelphia today, safe from the clutches of a New York process mystery, but that he adopted the timenonored practices of his craft is sure, and that he so wrought upon the singer's nerves by his urgency that her farewell concert in Carnegie hall was almost spoiled is also a fact, though the public who cheered Patti knew nothing of it. When Mme Patti alighted from her carriage at the stage entrance of Carat her eltow. Behind her was a muscular fellow whom Marcus Mayer, representing Mr Grau, had engaged as a body guard. The diva had a handkerchief pressed to her lips and throat to ward off the effects of the night air. The process server jumped out of the darkness, tried to pull her hands down from her throat and thrust a paper in the singer's face, saying: "Mme Patti, here is a paper for

He got the words out, but not the paper from his hand, for the baron, with a punch and a shove, sent him sprawling across the sidewalk. Then he almost lifted Mme Patti into the stage When she reached her dressing room the diva was crying and almost hysterical from fright. For some time it was feared she would be unable to sing. The effects of her adventure were apparent in her first numbers. MURRAY HELD IN $1000.

Charged with Assault and Attempt to Rob an Everett Woman. MALDEN, Nov 9-In court here today, Oscar W. Murray, colored, aged 25, was arraigned by the Everett police on a charge of assault with intent to rob Mary Johnson of that city. They allege that while Miss Johnson was walking on Hancock st Saturday night, with a prayerbook in her hand, Johnson suddenly jumped out of a clump of bushes, get the prayerbook, thinking it was her pocket book. Her outcries brought assistance, and the assailant fied. In court today, Murray was held in $1900 bonds for trial Friday.

Just Like a Woman. "Yes." said the returned missionary, "the queen of the savages was clothed in a little brief authority and-"How was it trimmed?" interrupted Mrs Newrich, who was a slave to fash-ion.—Chicago News.

Burglars in Lynn Shoe

Attempt to Blow Open the Safe

Abandon Job Before Penetrating the Inner Doors.

With Nitreglycerin.

LYNN, Nov 9-When the shoe factory of Cobb & Putnam here was opened this morning it was found that burglars had entered the place during the night and attempted to blow open the safe with nitroglycerin.

the inner doors and abandoned their work, probably fearing that further exwould arouse persons living near by. The discharge of the chemical was heard by a number of residents, but the presence of the burglars was not

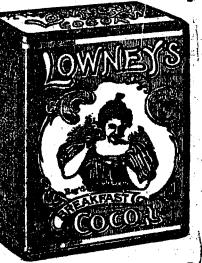

The burglars were unable to penetrate

THEODORE ROGERS DEAD. Former President of the Bank of the Metropolis-He Had Fortune of Several Millions. NEW YORK, Nov 9-Theodore Rogers former president of the bank of the Metropolis, is dead from paralysis at his home in Jamaica, Long Island, He was 72 years old and leaves a fortune of several million dollars.

Mr Rogers began his business career as a bank messenger. He retired from the presidency of the bank of the Metropolis a few months ago, cwing to

At Pan-American Exposition.

Unlike Any Other! The full flavor, the delicious quality, the absolute Purity of Lowney's Breakfast Cocoa distinguish it from all others.

No "treatment" with alkalies; no adulteration with flour, starch or ground cocoa shells; nothing but the nutritive and digestible product of the choicest Cocoa Beans. Ask Your Dealer for It.

At Moderate Prices.