

Something pretty scary is happening in America right now.

The Republican minority in the US Senate has robbed the American People of the votes they cast in the 2012 Presidential election. The agenda of progress and change Voters mandated is being blocked every day.

The government shutdown and other obstruction have led to single-digit approval ratings for Congress and a Democratic landslide is almost inevitable in 2014. Still, this will not give President Obama enough time to complete his mandate.

There is a solution. Today OFA is announcing a drive to repeal the 22nd Amendment to the US Constitution that limits the President to two terms in office. We need an Obama third term.

With climate change and ocean rise imminent, we cannot trust the reins of government to a lesser person than Barack Obama—our very survival depends on it. Millions of Americans are at risk of losing their newly-won health insurance rights. Only someone like Barack Obama has the strength to see that the Affordable Care Act is fully Implemented.

We can't let the Republicans block President Obama's legacy -- add your name right now to a petition to repeal the 22nd Amendment.

The opposition to repeal will be well-organized and extremely well funded and – and you can bet they will not go down without a fight.

Rep. José Serrano of New York is signed up to introduce the joint resolution calling for the Amendment as soon as the 114th Congress is seated. OFA is working with a strong coalition of organizations that are dedicated to fighting for Obama's legacy. We need anyone who cares about this fight to stand in solidarity with President Obama.

Join in and stand up for President Obama and stand up for America!
